Felt Hat Season Brings Worries to Males With Style Fever.

The old joke about the woman and the milliner's window has long been a chestnut" to say the least. But it is today becoming absolutely untrue.

In place of the weman substitute a man, preferably one with a pinch back suit, a trick mustache, and a "deah me" accent. Then fill the window with men's caps, derbies, dicers, stove-pipes, panamas, felt hats, cloth hats, collapsible two-quart hats, chapeaux diplomatique, and plain "lids" and you begin to approach the reality.

Dealers who have studied the situation declare that poor man has a fierce time keeping in hats, while a voman seems to breeze by with little When a man goes to pick out a hat

it is a function. Six clerks and three hours of time are exhausted in the momentous search. And finally the clerks, in desperation, albeit with suave words and smiling lips, unload on the victim a head dress which makes his friends bleat for weeks and his family hang its head in tearful disgrace.

Regular Hay-Stack. In the summer he needs a straw hat for day wear, another kind for evening wear, a still different variety for Sundays, a fourth for rainy weather, and a fifth when he's motoring. In the winter it's worse. Then the fflicted made must have one kind of hat in which to go to work on clear days, another when it's snowing, one for evening, a "topper" for the opera, another kind for Sundays, still another breed when he shovels snow, another kind still when he shovels ashes, and another when he goes to bed.

This last is known to some as the 'nightcap." Bluenoses refer to it in connection with the words "devil" and Then there are special occasions which require special toppings. Golf demands its own variety. If the old boy goes fishing that's another mat-ter. If he plays tennis that's something else, again. If he is a motor boat self starter he gets another kind. Whenever he plays with the kiddles whatever breed of hat he may be wearing rapidly becomes something less than a hat and just a trifle more than a rag. A trifle more expensive. Then comes another three-hour seasion with the six clerks. The All-Round Hat.

But as for woman. Gee! If she's ovely, as most of 'em are, the men never look at the hat, anyhow, so she needn't worry on that score. She can get one fetching example of the miliner's art and wear it any old time. It is proposed that some clever chap -he would need to be all of that-in-vent an "all 'round" hat, one that could be worn by all the members of the family.

First mother would wear it. First, of course. Then sis would collect it, turn up an edge here, and turn down an edge there. After sis had finished M brother would put a few dents in the crown, turn up the edge that sis had turned down and turn down the edge that she had turned up and wear it himself. Then little brother knock around in it for a while. After all this mistreatment, then, as a matter of course, dad would get it and either wear it to work or go uncov-Is it a wonder that so many men wind up in the "booby hatch?"

BRITON WILL TRY TRIP

AROUND WORLD IN PLANE OTTAWA, Canada, Sept. 17.-Announcement was made here today by the Dominion Air Board that Sir Ross Smith, the British airman who last summer flew from England to Australia, is contemplating a trip around the world in an airplane. The flier will start before winter, it is; said. A route with stopping places from British Columbia to Cape Breton has already been mapped out and an alternative trail has been supplied M which would bring the aviator into the United States, touching at St. ==

Paul, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York. Sir Ross Smith, it is understood, is having a special ship built for his globe-circling journey.

STRAW HAT SMASHERS

TO GO TO WORKHOUSE NEW YORK, Sept. 17.-The open season on straw hats was closed abruptly yesterday by Magistrate McQuade. If his warnings have effect, New Yorkers may wear them even until Christmas immune from destruction. He announced that hereafter any smashers of straw headgear would be given the extreme penalty for felonious assault or larceny and sent to the workhouse. As a warning one young man who kicked a hat around was fined $5. MARINE SENTRY KILLED BY CONTACT WITH WIRE NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 17.—Private Corps, was electrocuted when he came into contact with live wires in a pit near the sentry post on St. Helena Reservation at which he was on duty. Death is believed to have been instantaneous.

Private Kimbrell's absence his post was noted when his relief went to the sentry post at 8 a. m. Search of the neighborhood revealed his crumpled body in the pit. body was removed and hurried to the naval hospital at Portsmouth, but Kimbrell was beyond medical
